Understanding of Team Topologies and Organization

Stream-aligned team
Organized around the flow of work and are optimized to build and deliver value quickly, safely, and independently.

Complicated subsystem team
Provide specialists to reduce the cognitive load on other teams.

Platform team
Organized around the development and help stream-aligned teams to deliver work with substantial autonomy.
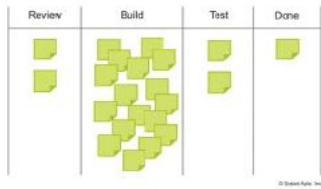

Enabling team
increase the autonomy of stream-aligned teams by growing their capabilities with a focus on problems, rather than solutions.

Adaptive Spectrum Drives Process Selection

Scope Uncertainty + Effort Uncertainty:

Uncertainty →

The Agile Zone

Predictive	Adaptive	Reactive
Plan-Driven	Scrum	Kanban
Waterfall
→ Emphasize efficiency (minimum cost, duration) → Perform well when work is well understood → Perform poorly when uncertainty is high	→ Emphasize adaptability to rapid change → Enable detailed short-term planning → Evolve longer-term specs, plans over time →Overhead of enabling change is costly for predictable work	→ Emphasize continuous re-prioritization, efficient allocation of work to people → Do not require work to be planned against calendar →Handle unpredictable work well

Through a comprehensive diagnostic, we assess team structures, workflow and collaboration practices

Enhance team performance by aligning roles, responsibilities, and workflows to fit your business need.

Streamline processes and reduce manual efforts with improved team coordination and efficient practices

Maximize value delivery by optimizing team dynamics and leveraging existing strengths and resources
